PRODUCTION

At RA Mobili the classic style of Italian-made burlwood and leather furniture for executive and presidential offices blends contemporary forms with modern manufacturing methods. Premium quality, the best materials, fine fabrics, leathers and burlwood varieties are the mainstay of RA Mobili's range of office furniture. Thanks to its natural succession of ever-changing geometric shapes, burlwood guarantees the uniqueness of each piece, while project-based production and the lack of stock goods ensures the burlwood achieve utmost uniformity in each individual environment. Project-based Production means that any furniture supplied by RA Mobili suits all executive and presidential offices perfectly, as well as impressive boardrooms: any office furnished by RA Mobili becomes a unique and very special ambience.
